

Calling All New Mexico Theatres

It is time to start planning for AACTFest'11
Before you plan your 2011 season consider hosting the NM State Festival in March 2011.
It is a wonderful experience and we have many in NM to lend a hand in the planning.

Think of the exposure your theatre will get!
Please send a non - binding letter of intent to host to:
Kathie Maldonado
P.O. Box 154
Alto, NM 88312

For more information contact:

Kathie - 575.336.1872 kathietnm@valornet.com
Reginia Garner - 575.748.3444 reginia@pvt.net
Patti Stevenson Brown - 505.662.9557 stevensonbrown@aol.com
Eugene Irby - 575.746.6915 eugene@plateautel.net

To see what it's all about...
Attend the REGION VI AACTFest in Kerrville, TX April 15 - 19, 2009
(for more information contact Eugene)

2010 Theatre New Mexico Annual Conference

March 18-21, 2010

Hosted in Artesia, NM by Artesia Community Theatre and Artesia Arts Council at the recently renovated Ocotillo Performing Arts Center
Detailed information will be released soon to all TNM members

March 18-19 -- Grant Writing Workshop open to all interested are Non-Profits

March 20 - Workshops and Possible Panel Discussion
Topics: Theatre renovation

Presenters:

Devendra N. Contractor A.I.A. – Chief Architect of the Ocotillo Renovation
Bill Dohn – Acoustical Engineer and Consultant
Adam Shalleck, A.I.A. – Planning and Design of Theatres and Production Systems

Evening of March 20th – 10 Minute Play Showcase
Each theatre group within the state will be encouraged to participate. Looking for original 10
Minute plays which will be presented at the annual conference.

March 21 – Breakfast and the Annual Meeting